DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Sticht (5,271,490) or Gilbert et al. (5,012,917) in view of either Gosdowski et al. (5,593,018) or Page et al. (4,307,988).

Sticht (5,271,490) and Gilbert et al. (5,012,917) disclose endless transfer line(s). Sticht (5,271,490) and Gilbert et al. (5,012,917) lack(s) a work and part transfer passage providing nesting of transfer line(s). Gosdowski et al. (5,593,018) or Page et al. (4,307,988) teach(es) work and part transfer passages.

It would have been obvious to modify either Sticht (5,271,490) or Gilbert et al. (5,012,917) to provide a work and part transfer passage in order to increase efficiency as taught by Gosdowski et al. (5,593,018) or Page et al. (4,307,988).
